FATAL COLLISION.

Several Lives Lost on the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio.

CRIMINAL CONDUCT OF A FLAGMAN WHO NEGLECTED HIS DUTY.

An Eastbound Express Dashes Into a Disabled Freight Near Tallmadge—A Little Girl and Four Chinamen Are Slowly Roasted to Death, Being Unable to Escape From the Wreck.

AKRON, O., Jan. 15.—A terrible wreck occurred on the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio road at 3 a. m. near Tallmadge, six miles east of this city. The fast east-bound train, carrying two sleeper and several other passenger cars, collided with a freight train.

Five persons were killed and twenty-three wounded, and it is reported that seven Chinamen are missing, being probably buried in the ruins.

The killed are:

Bob Huntington, of Galion, engineer of express.

William Walters, of Ashland, his fireman.

William Lundy, formerly of Akron, express messenger.

J. A. Rushford, brakeman.

Mary Ann Lyon, six-year-old, traveling alone from the far west to Cherry Creek, New York.

Four Chinamen, who were in the smoker, making a total of ten.

The injured number about a dozen. Among them:

Thomas Fairfax, colored, of Cleveland, a passenger.

James Boyd, of Paterson, N. J., a passenger.

Sam. Douglass, of Galion, an engineer, traveling as a passenger.

The worst injured of these is Fairfax, his leg being broken in two places and his head badly cut.

Little Mary Lyon and the four Chinamen were hurled to death, being pinned in the wreck. The smoker and the passenger car next to it were consumed. The accident was caused by the breaking apart of the freight.

Two flagmen were sent out to warn the approaching train, but they misunderstood the signal and came back to the train before things were righted. The two sleepers stayed on the track and the passengers in them escaped with bumps and bruises.

Further Particulars.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 15.—Particulars of the accident on the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio road near Tallmadge, as far as known at the general office in this city, are that the third section of the freight train broke in two between Kent and Tallmadge.

The front end of the freight was put on the side track, and a flagman was left at Tallmadge to flag passenger train No. 8, east-bound, then nearly due.

The flagman imagined he heard a whistled signal from his engine to return to the train, and did not perform the duty required of him.

The wreck is more serious than the one at Elkhorn, when the Grand Army train was wrecked.

Flendish Obstructions on a Trestle.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Passengers who arrived in Washington Sunday night on the southern train of the Piedmont Air Line state that a deliberate attempt to wreck the train was made in South Carolina Saturday, between Fagalo and Westminster. Two large stones and a tie had been placed on the trestle which crossed a deep ravine. The tie had been placed upright between the tie beams of the trestle, and the stones were placed a short distance away. Two baggage cars were smashed and the passengers badly shaken. The high rate of speed alone prevented a terrible disaster.

EATON, OHIO, AGAIN EXCITED

Over a Bloody Murder—The Victim's Son Suspected of the Crime.

EATON, O., Jan. 15.—Saturday night Mrs. Caroline Sharkey, a widow, aged forty-six years, living on her small farm two miles north of here, was found murdered. She was lying on her back in a pool of blood, with the back of her head crushed to a jelly and her arm broken. The murdered woman had been struck with a wooden maul, having iron rings at both ends. It was matted with blood. The victim was murdered in her bed.

Her son Elmer, about twenty-two years of age, says he left his mother sitting up about 8 o'clock and went to bed. He was awakened some time in the night by a noise on the stairway leading to his room, and sprang through the window, glass and all, jumping thirty feet to the ground. He ran to John Clarke's, near by, and the two returned to the house, to find his mother dead.

There was many conflicting facts that tend to weaken his statement. Elmer seemed utterly indifferent to his mother's terrible fate, and has not once showed a sign of feeling except by the offer of $1,000 reward for the murderer.

Elmer is heir to the 130 acre farm, which is good for the $1,000 reward.

The neighbors who investigated think Elmer killed his mother, and going to his room, undressed and, jumping out of the window, alarmed the neighbors.

This case is similar to one about a year ago of young Beal, who killed his mother and ran to some neighbors and told a story about tramps having killed her.

There has been a great deal of excitement over this case, and some threats were made Sunday. Wise counsel will prevail, however, for Eaton has had one experience with mob law that will not soon be forgotten.

WE DON'T WANT SOMOA.

Germany Can Have Anything She Wants in the Pacific Ocean.

New York, Jan. 15.—The Sun's Washington special says:

The Berlin dispatch announces great satisfaction in the German capital over an announcement by the American government that the United States had no interest in Samoa that warranted it in maintaining a controversy with the German government, and that the latter would probably send reinforcements to Samoa. Is supposed here to refer to some dispatch from Secretary Bayard that is not included in the official correspondence already made public and is, perhaps, later than any of the published correspondence.

If Mr. Bayard sent such a dispatch it must have been in one of those pacific moods which the secretary of state enjoys oftener than some of his cabinet colleagues do. In the Canadian negotiations and in the Sackville episode Mr. Bayard found that other portions of the administration were more aggressive than he, and he modified his course accordingly. He may have sent a supplement to his peaceful dispatch to Berlin, supposing that the Berlin dispatch referred to was warranted by the facts.

The activity of the navy department in preparing three or four cruisers for sea service with a marked indisposition on the part of the secretary of the navy to tell what the service was to be, is believed by the gentlemen who have been watching the Samoan affair, to indicate that a naval force is to be sent to Samoa, and that Germany is not to have notice in advance of the departure of the ships. There was a great deal more of the navy department than of the state department in the dispatch of the marines to Panama in April, 1885, and Mr. Whitney is more favorable to a spirited foreign policy than Mr. Bayard is.

The commerce of the Atlantic is wholly in foreign hands, and destined to remain there. On the commerce of the Pacific we have a pretty good hold, and in the development of that commerce the control of Samoa is an important element. The friends of strong action in Samoa point out that Germany has as many European complications that must be looked after that she will not add to them any quarrel with the United States, and that a blunt statement by our government that the establishment of a German protectorate in Samoa would be regarded by us as an unfriendly act, would be enough to stop German interference in the affairs of Malleton Tannese and Matana.

GLASS MARKET GLUTTED.

Manufacturers Propose to Shut Down for a While.

FINDLAY, O., Jan. 15.—The window glass men of this city, who started for Washington Sunday night to attend the National convention of the Window Glass Manufacturers' association, which meets on Tuesday in that city, have received a communication from a Pittsburg manufacturer, whose name they will not disclose, asking them to vote for a resolution ordering the shut-down of a number of factories in order to relieve the glutted condition of the market and force prices up a little. In his letter the Pittsburg manufacturer insists that prices are lower now than ever before, and that this state of affairs is all due to the large number of factories started in the west during the past two years.

He therefore proposes that the new factories, all but two of which are now in the association, not having any fuel bills to pay on account of getting natural gas free, shall shut down, thus relieving the market of this output, and the running factories shall give those closing an equal share in the profits which will accrue from the advance in prices which this step will bring about.

Interviews with glass men here who will attend the Washington convention reveal the fact that, with one exception, they are favorable to the proposition, and will so vote when the matter comes before the meeting, thus assisting in the formation of nothing more or less than a window glass trust, with all that the name implies.

Macdonald Will Be Forced.

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—An Ottawa special to the Herald says it is indicated that the British government will force Sir John Macdonald to recede from his policy of restricting Chinese immigration, as being inconsistent with treaty obligations. The government of China has directed the attention of the British government to the hostile attitude of Australia and Canada toward the Chinese, and is discussing the propriety of withdrawing commercial privileges, unless treaty rights are observed. Should the Dominion government withdraw the restriction act, the number of Chinese arrivals at Victoria or Vancouver, B. C., would be greatly multiplied, as that would, no doubt, be made the channel of a large influx of Chinese into the United States.

South Carolina Cussedness.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—A special dispatch from Raleigh, N. C., to the Herald says news has reached there from Red Banks, Robeson county, to the effect that a mob of men who live in a place called Seufftown, made an assault on Friday night on the house of a man named Harp, against whom there has been some feeling for some time. Bullets were shot through the doors and windows, wounding several persons in the house. Harp's wife, aged sixty-five, was instantly killed. The details of the affair are very meager and no cause for the attack upon the house by the mob is known. The sheriff with a posse is in pursuit of the murderers.

Chickasaws Not Satisfied.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 15.—The latest advices from the Indian Territory are that the late decision of Secretary Vilas, giving the governorship of the Chickasaw Nation to William L. Byrd, is not favorably received. The adherents of William Guy, who was elected on the face of the returns, and who is virtually deposed by the decision, largely outnumbered the Byrd faction in many localities, and are threatening trouble. Both Guy and Byrd agreed to accept the arbitration of the interior department. Guy himself will keep faith, but it is doubtful whether he can prevent his partisans from breaking out in open violence.

COUNTY SEAT WAR

Bloody Battle Between Two Rival Towns in Kansas,

EACH OF WHICH WANTS TO HAVE THE COURT HOUSE.

Three Men Have Already Lost Their Lives

In the Controversy—Cimarron Now Under Martial Law—Ingalls Fortified For An Attack—Thrilling Experience of the Sheriff of Gray County.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 15.—There is little in the nature of comforting or reassuring news from Cimarron, the seat of the bloody war, in Gray county, Kansas.

The trouble is the result of a war for the county seat between the rival towns of Ingalls and Cimarron. The most intense feeling still exists on both sides, and, despite Gen. Myers' assurance of peace, there is no prospect that further blood spilling will be avoided.

The regularly elected deputies and clerk, arrested and imprisoned, have been released. This intensified the bitterness, and the whole populace of Cimarron arose, armed and threatened to go to Ingalls, burn the town, and kill all the people there; but, luckily, the farmers, who sympathized with the officers, during the night surrounded and guarded the town, and the timely arrival of troops quelled immediate bloodshed.

Gen. Meyers arrived at Cimarron Sunday morning, with the Second regiment. He wired Governor Martin he did not think there was any need for troops, but the governor has different advice, and the troops will stay there until quiet is entirely restored.

Martial law has been proclaimed at Cimarron, and no strangers are allowed to enter the town. Every man has been disarmed, and in some instances force was necessary to do this.

There was a fight Saturday night between two men—Gage, of Cimarron, and Robbins, of Ingalls, in which Gage was killed. The fight occurred a few miles out of town.

Ingalls now presents the appearance of a beleaguered city. Fortifications have been built across the roads approaching, and nearly all the houses have been turned into forts. Even the women of the town bear arms as well as the men, and express a determined purpose to use them if the need arises. Sentinels are posted night and day, half a mile out of town in all directions, to guard against possible surprise. The presence of troops renders these precautions unnecessary at Cimarron.

The sheriff of Gray county tells a thrilling story of his experiences. He was in his office at Cimarron when the door burst in, and the leader of the Ingalls mob entered, covered him with a Winchester rifle, and ordered him not to move. All the other officers were similarly treated, and the mob sacked the county offices and made off with the records.

In the pursuit, two citizens of Cimarron, English and Bliss, were killed, though they were not taking part in the fight.

The Ingalls mob was headed by the rival clerk, Watson, elected by the faction in that part of the county.

CINCINNATI'S CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Program of the Exercises that Will be Conducted at the Dedication.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 15.—The executive committee having in charge the dedication of the new chamber of commerce, which will take place on Wednesday, the 20th inst., met Sunday. Over two hundred invitations have been issued to commercial organizations in this country, and in addition to a number of the leading European chambers of commerce have received invitations. The reception and the promenade concert will be given on Tuesday, the 20th.

On this occasion the building will be brilliantly illuminated from top to bottom. Flowers and cut plants will decorate the rooms. On the morning following, the First regiment band will escort the members from the old to the new building. Rev. B. W. Childlaw will then deliver a prayer and an address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Smith. Mr. Henry C. Urner will present the keys to President Morrison and the singing of the dedicatory hymn to the tune of "Old Hundred" will follow. Hon. E. F. Noyes will then deliver an oration. A banquet will be held on the evening of the dedication.

Powderly on the New Order.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Jan. 15.—General Master Workman T. V. Powderly, of the Knights of Labor, addressed a public meeting of District Assembly No. 152, in this city, Sunday evening. After the public meeting an executive session was held, at which district officers for the coming year were elected. Mr. Powderly made a long address on National topics pertaining to the Knights of Labor. Among other things, he stated that one of the four alleged founders of the Knights of Labor, who are trying to establish a new order in Philadelphia, recently offered to sell out the new order to him for $100, and he had satisfactory proof that the same person had previously offered to sell out to John Wamamaker.

Iowa Will Send a Regiment.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Jan. 15.—Enough Iowa companies have reported to warrant Col. Davis of the First regiment of Iowa National guards in announcing that he will take a regiment of Iowa militia to Gen. Harrison's inauguration. The companies forming the regiment are from Boone, Council Bluffs, Sioux City, Waterloo, Iowa City, Burlington, Ottumwa, Shenandoah and Cedar Rapids, with probably Dubuque and Muscatine. The companies will have not less than thirty men each, will wear the regulation fatigue uniform, and will rendezvous at Chicago, March 1. Thence they will go to the capital by special train.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 15.—Governor Fifer, in his address to the legislature, after paying a high compliment to the military and civil records of the retiring governor, touches upon the question of a free ballot, and recommends the passage of a law which will make a bribe giver the chief offender. He strongly recommends the enforcement of the law already passed, which forbids in strong terms and under heavy penalties, the arming and parading of companies of private detectives to act as peace officers without authority of law. A large portion of the address is devoted to the labor question and recommendations for properly enforcing the law providing for compulsory education.

Getting After the Trusts.

Judge Barrett, of New York, ruled a few days since that "trusts are unlawful combinations." His decision has attracted attention throughout the country. These monopolies, he declares, are detrimental to trade, and will not be tolerated by law. His decision was rendered in a case where proceedings had been entered to forfeit the charter of a sugar refining company because it had entered the "Sugar Trust." The court said:

The trust can close every refinery at will, close some and open others, limit the purchase of raw material (thus jeopardizing and in a considerable degree controlling its production), artificially limit the production of refined sugar, enhance the price to enrich themselves and their associates at the public expense, and depress the price when necessary to crush out and impoverish a footling rival; in brief, can come as near to creating an absolute monopoly as is possible under the social, political and economic conditions of to-day.

Of course, the company will appeal from his decision, and the ruling of the higher court will be anxiously awaited.

Following this discussion of Judge Barrett comes the news from Ohio that a bill aimed directly at "trusts" is to be introduced in the Legislature now in session at Columbus. The act is entitled, "A bill to prevent combinations intended to restrain trade, or to increase the market price of articles known as necessities of life." It reads as follows:

§ 1. After the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any individual, company, association or corporation to enter into, continue or maintain any combination, agreement or arrangement of any kind, expressed or implied, with any individual, company, association or corporation for any of the following purposes:

1. To unreasonably enhance the market price of any of the following commodities, to-wit: milk, meat, flour, sugar, coal, wood, oil, glass, or any other article known as a necessity of life.

2. To unduly restrain trade in any of said articles, or to withhold the same from the markets or ordinary channels of trade for an unreasonable period of time.

3. To limit, lessen or hinder the production, manufacture, sale or transportation of any of said articles, or to establish a standard below which said articles, or any of them, shall not be sold to the public, with intent to unreasonably enhance the price thereof or bring about a scarcity thereof.

4. To prevent or restrict competition in the production, manufacture or sale of said articles, or of any of them, with intent to unreasonably enhance the price thereof or bring about a scarcity thereof.

§ 2. It shall not be lawful hereafter for any trust or combination, now existing or hereafter to be formed between two or more individuals, companies, associations or corporations, or for the representatives of such trusts or combinations to do any act the natural and necessary result of which will be to produce a scarcity in any of the articles referred to in Section 1 of this act, or to unreasonably enhance the price of same.

Penalties are provided for violations of the act.

With the courts and the Legislatures after the trusts their day seems to be drawing to a close.

Mr. James G. Blaine will learn before long that "trusts are unlawful combinations" and not "private enterprises with which no one has any right to interfere."

The thirteen Democrats in the West Virginia Senate ought to prove a match for the thirteen Republicans.

COLONEL WALTER EVANS seems to have the call on the Kentucky patronage and will likely have more to say about distributing the official plums in this State than either Swope, Denny, Bradley or Goodloe.

GENERAL HARRISON hasn't invited Colonel Bradley to Indianapolis yet, but Colonel Walter Evans is there this week. In the distribution of the official plums in this State under the coming administration, Bradley will likely get—left.

The New York World says the Democratic party neither controlled nor lays claim to having controlled the administration of President Cleveland and therefore hasn't had a fair trial. That may be true, but the administration has been one that any party might well feel proud of.

At Louisville John Owsley and Milt Geoghegan, both colored, entered into a whisky-drinking contest, go-as-you-please, at one standing, the first to weaken to pay for the liquor. Owsley got away with two quarts in eight minutes. Geoghegan threw up the sponge and paid the bill. Owsley walked away without a stagger, so it is said, but he won't figure in any more whisky-drinking contests. He dropped dead next day.

The Lexington Leader published an article a few days ago creating the impression that the State Board of Pharmacy had violated the law by issuing a certificate to a drug clerk of that city who had failed to pass the required examination. Professor Fowler, President of the Board, denies the charge and quotes the law under which the Board acted. The Leader is a rampant Republican journal, and do doubt likes to bring discredit upon any Democratic officials.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Comments of the County Superintendent for the Year 1888-1889.

No. 57—GAULT'S.

Number of pupils on roll 39; average attendance 30. Jessie Allison has lost no time.

The trustees are R. P. Gault, Thomas Allison and Jos. Wood. The house is comfortable, but the furniture is old style.

This school is taught by Miss Ida Richards, a thoroughly equipped teacher, who has made excellent progress with the work, and won the confidence of both pupils and patrons. Miss Richards writes: "It is hard to sum up in a few words what one has accomplished. I will just say that I think I have made an entire success of the written work, in its crude state, and with a little more careful work and hewing down of the rough parts, that my school will make a fair showing. There has also been a decided advancement in mathematics in each class. But I would suggest and insist upon the patrons and trustees visiting the school and encouraging the teacher and pupils by their presence."

I found the discipline first-class, and the school in enthusiastic working order, than which no higher praise can be bestowed.

No. 58—KEY'S.

Pupils on roll 25; average attendance 17. The trustees are James Key, Bela Metcalfe and Graham Lee. There is no school house in the district, but there probably will be soon. The present school is taught in a house furnished by Mr. Key.

Miss Ida Mayhugh is teaching her second term here. She has kept up the written work and succeeded well. She requires compositions and letters of the pupils every two weeks; and she speaks well of the advancement of her classes in U. S. history and grammar. Miss Mayhugh also gives exercises in reproduction of stories read to her pupils, as well as memory lessons taken from their work and re-produced in writing in a limited time. She writes: "The pupils have manifested by regularity of attendance, and enthusiastic love of their work, a greater interest than it has ever before been my privilege to see in any school room. If I can lay any claim to success, this my second term here has been so far the most successful in my experience."

No. 12—WEST LIBERTY.

There are 55 pupils on roll; with an average attendance of 45. Dullie Clarke has lost no time.

The trustees are B. F. Hawkins, Bell Rees and Henry Cmycraft. Mr. Hawkins has been very attentive to the school. Of the patrons Mrs. Hiram Dye, Mrs. W. P. Clarke and Mr. Tom Robinson have visited the school.

Miss Ella F. Galbreath is teaching here, and very successfully too. She is well qualified, careful and full of resources in the school room. She writes: "My pupils have accomplished a great deal in their work, while I have improved in new methods, especially in the use of the written work, and a programme for myself and pupils. The pupils, as well as their teacher, are pleased with the written work, and have been successful in its use."

So it will be with each school where the written work has been faithfully introduced. The pupils will bring new interest and energy to his task, and its advantage will be felt in every recitation, and in the scholarship of the pupils in the years to come.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Furnished by Glover & Durrett, proprietors, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.
Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,289 hhds, with receipts for the same period of 839 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 3,683 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1888 to date amount to 8,485 hhds.

Our market has been somewhat stronger and more active on the better grades of new, frequent sales having been made at prices ranging from $10 to $15. The great bulk of the offerings, however, have been of inferior quality, and has sold at low prices. The weather for handling the crop continues unfavorable and receipts are comparatively small.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for new burley tobacco:

A PROMINENT Buffalo physician is an enthusiast on the subject of onions. SHE STILL LEADS.

Notwithstanding the Troubles Germany Has Met With,

SHE CONTINUES TO MAINTAIN HER SUPERIORITY.

And When in Straightened Circumstances,
All the Nations of Europe, With Two Exceptions, Have Come to Her to Replenish Their Public Coeffers When Running Low—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—For many years nearly every European government of any consequence has been periodically plunged into throes of resentment toward Germany, the results of real or imaginary insults sustained at the hands of that aggressive power, even the professed friends of the empire indulging in expressions of anger and disgust. To paraphrase the ancient axiom that threatened men live long, it is obvious that threatened countries prosper.

With the exception of two of the European powers, England and France, one of which doesn't need it and the other being unable to get it if it did, there is scarcely a government in Europe that has not within the last few years made application to German capitalists for a loan, and there is none that does not turn its eyes longingly toward the money centers of the fatherland whenever the contents of the public coffers are discovered to be running low.

In these circumstances it is not surprising that Germany is independent even to the verge of aggressiveness, if not beyond it, any more than the hesitancy displayed by her neighbors in provoking a serious quarrel with her excites wonder. The diminutive debtor rarely seeks a fight with his colossal creditor, nor does the impudens man often provoke a contest whose issue is to be determined by the comparative length of purses, with the capitalist. The maintenance of a great military and naval establishment weighs heavily upon the resources of every European country, but there is no doubt that Germany is able to bear the burden longer than any of the others, and it may be safely predicted that a general disarmament will never be made at her suggestion.

The Liberal Press Protests.

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—The whole Liberal press protests against the action of the North German Gazette, in utilizing the letter written by the late Emperor Frederick to Prince Bismarck on the occasion of the jubilee of the latter's entering the army. The Vossische Zeitung says: "This personal mark of attention to the chancellor, especially when taken in conjunction with the solicitude of the commander-in-chief for the army, is anything but a refutation of the political creed laid down by Frederick in his diary and in his governmental actions. According to all human sentiment one would think that such noble words would impose duties of quite a different character from that the North German Gazette seeks to give them, after the death of the noble prince."

The Agony Will Be Prolonged.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The Figaro's intimation that De Lesseps and his associates have succeeded in securing through the Bank of Paris the issue of an enormous additional block of Panama canal shares is not regarded here as representing the true state of affairs. It is possibly true that efforts will continue to be made for some time to come to issue fresh shares, but it is not probable that a sufficiently large number of purchasers can be found among the already disgusted French people to realize a sum sufficient to insure the success of the enterprise. The announcement has, however, inspired hope in many quarters, and the agony will continue to be prolonged.

Take Your Marriage Certificate.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Vienna correspondent of the Times says: American couples about to travel in Austria ought to take with them their marriage certificates. An American lady recently gave birth to a child here, and the father, accompanied by witnesses, went to register the birth. "Owing to the absence of a marriage certificate," the clerk said, he must record the birth as illegitimate, and the only concession made after much expostulation, was the substitution of the word "doubtful" for "illegitimate." Further, on being told that the parents belonged to the Anglican church, the clerk wrote down "No religion."

Jaques Replies to Boulanger.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—M. Jaques has published a reply to Gen. Boulanger's latest manifesto.
M. Jaques says:
"With a Republican army there is no need to fear a Sedan. With a Cæsarian army, which would cease to be exclusively French in order to become the army of a rebel soldier, defeat would be doubted by dishonor."
M. Jaques advises the electors not to listen to a soldier who has lost the right to appeal to the flag, and to reject one whose candidate signifies disorder and National ruin.

Peace Congress.

MILAN, Jan. 15.—The peace congress was opened Sunday. Signor Cipriani presided.
M.M. Cluseret, Laguerre, Rusine and other French deputies were cordially welcomed.
Anatole Forge and Aurelio Saffi were elected honorary presidents. A number of speeches were made. A resolution was adopted condemning the triple alliance.

Going Hunting.

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—Emperor William, accompanied by the prince of Lippe, will go to Buckeburg on a shooting expedition, and will remain until Thursday.

Foreign Notes.

It is reported that Sir R. D. Morier will shortly receive a high English distinction and before long will leave St. Petersburg.
The Brussels Nord, commenting on the Samoan question, says that if Germany helps Tamasose it is not surprising that Americans side with Matafao.

The Vatican has instructed the archbishop of Naples to visit Mr. Gladstone, but first to learn confidentially whether the visit will be agreeable to the English statesman.

Two sergeants who have been elected members of the Mitchelltown branch of the National league, have made a protest against the employment of the military at evictions.

Professor Gelfken is sick with cholera.
He refuses to be interviewed regarding his connection with the publication of Emperor Frederick's diary. He is still in daily receipt of letters, telegrams and flowers from friends and sympathizers.

The king of Holland was very restless throughout all of last night. A physician will remain at his bedside all night.

The Freisinge Zeitung says it would like to compare Emperor Frederick's autograph letters to Bismarck, published by the North German Gazette, with Frederick's expostula-tion to Minister von Puttkamer regarding electoral malpractice and other evils; also with notes penned by Frederick soon after the passage of the army reorganization bill, for which the Lil'icals voted.

DEFAULTER AXWORTHY.

He Will Return, Straighten Up Affairs and Begin Life Afloat.

TORONTO, Jan. 15.—Thomas Axworthy, the defaulting city treasurer of Cleveland, O., is staying at the Rossin house. Axworthy is a stout, business-like looking gentleman, on the far side of fifty. A close cropped mustache and side whiskers give him a rather military appearance, which is increased by his strong, deep-lined face and quick, ready manner of speech.

In conversation he remarked that he "hoped very little notice would be taken of his arrival in the city." His object in coming here, he said, was to assist in transfers of his real estate, vessels and other property in pursuance of an arrangement effected. Ax-worthy spoke on this subject with great earnestness.

"I have turned over everything," said he.
"When this affair is settled I only will be the loser. It is hard that after thirty years of labor I shall have to face the world again and begin everything anew. It is an old sore and an open sore that I am trying to heal, and that I hope to heal in a year or two."

"I made arrangements in England to turn over all my property, and left for Toronto almost immediately afterward. I embarked at Liverpool on Christmas day. The Nova Scotian had a rough voyage all the way to Halifax. The trip to Toronto took eighteen days in all. Of course we lay off for a few hours."

"Do you intend to take up your residence in Toronto?" was asked.

"I am inclined to think I shall," he said.

"My wife is coming on Tuesday."

"Have you resolved to go into any business?"

"Not at present. It will take considerable time to straighten out my own affairs, and I must finish that before I do anything else."

Rumors of a Large Defalcation.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 15.—Grave rumors of a large defalcation in the office of the collector of the city who recently died were in circulation Sunday, the amount alleged to be over $100,000. So far the closest secrecy has been observed by the officials and clerks but the truth is coming out. The bondsmen of the collector have had frequent meetings lately and a report of the condition of the office by an expert is looked for to-day. Five years ago the council refused to allow an expert to examine into the financial condition of the city.

Peace With Hayti.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—It is stated here that the Haytian Republic matter has been formally settled. Admiral Luce, so report says, has forwarded to the navy department the announcement that the government of Hayti acquiesces to the decision of President Cleveland. The papers in the case have been sent from the state department to the White House. The president will send to congress a message upon the subject, and until then the exact terms of Admiral Luce's communication will not be known.

The Weather.

Indications — Generally fair; clearing in;

Wrote It Up.

The following true story of Artemus Ward is now printed for the first time. While Ward was a reporter on a Cleveland newspaper, and some time before he had begun to make a reputation as a humorist, he was, one evening, sent out to write up a "swell" entertainment to be given by the leading club of the city. On his way to the hall Ward met a friend.

"Which way, Charles?"

"Going to write up a sort of fly shindig."

"Let's go in and take a bowl. I'm going down that way pretty soon."

They went into a beer hall. "I must go," said Ward, after he had spent half an hour in the place.

"Oh, no; sit down. Let's have another bowl. Say, you can write up that affair just as well from the programme as you can by seeing the performance. Got a programme, haven't you?"

"Yes."

"Well, write it up and then let's make a little round."

Ward surrendered. He wrote up the performance, took the article to the office, and,
after having received the praise of the city editor for the gracefulness of the work, went out with his friend. The next morning he read his "report" and was much pleased with his own ingenuity, but his complacency was of short life, for, taking up another paper, he read the following announcement:

"The performance of the A— club, in consequence of the sudden illness of a 'leading feature,' did not take place last night."

Ward had not the courage to go to the office, but he carried the first outgoing train.
Three months later he returned to Cleveland and was walking lazily along a street when he met the managing editor of the paper for which he had worked.

"Why, hello, Browne!" the editor exclaimed.

"Good morning."

"Where have you been?"

"Sequestered."

"Why didn't you come back to the office after making your bad break?"

"Conscience stricken."

"Oh, that was all right."

"It might have been all right for you,"

Ward replied, "but not for me. You see I suddenly discovered that I could not afford to work on so unreliable a paper. The paper that makes use of my services must be above reproach. Your sheet does not pay enough attention to telling the truth. I have decided to go to work on an afternoon contemporary —a paper that never tells anything. Farewell."—Arkansaw Traveler.

Concident With the Ocean Tides.

MONTPELIER, Ind., Jan. 14.—Perhaps nowhere in any gas belt is there so great peculiarity as exists in the flow of gas in this city. Six hours out of every twenty-four the gas runs down to a minimum, and six hours of the day the gas reaches maximum.
When the supply is at low ebb the valves are turned wide open to get a sufficient supply.
When the gas is at highest the smallest turn of the key is enough to supply the demand. That the movements are constant with the ocean tides is evident, but whether or not the same influences are the cause can only be a matter of conjecture.

Sackville's Incompetency.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Referring to the blue book on the Sackville affair, the Daily News says: "Lord Salisbury has vindicated the technical propriety of the course he has pursued, and has made a distinct point at the expense of President Cleveland. We can not, however, think his practical wisdom equal to his controversial skill. The vacancy at Washington serves no useful purpose. Lord Sackville's dispatches simply confirm his unfitness for the post he accepted."

Fighting Foes and Bavarians.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 15.—The police were summoned to the upper flats Sunday night to quell a riot which had broken out among the Poles and Bavarians. Knives and clubs were used freely, and many persons were seriously hurt. Michael Hochvimer, a Bavarian, was cut with a large knife several places. One of the wounds was made in the back, the blade of the weapon entering the abdomen. This will prove fatal. Seven men are under arrest. Joe Ketzberger is believed to have given Hochvimer the fatal stab.

Unclaimed Bank Deposits.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 15.—The National banks are slow in making returns under a recent law, which directs that a list of deposits which have been unclaimed for seven years shall be published. The constitutionality of the law is questioned, as it interferes with the United States laws regulating banks.

Destitution in Dakota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 15.—Investigation of the report sent out by Rev. G. W. Huntley, Baptist missionary for North Dakota, of extreme destitution among the settlers in the western part of Welsh county, verify the statements made. Upward of two hundred persons were found at Park River and Gratton whose poverty is even more abject than that which existed among the Jews at Devil's lake.

That Big Swindle.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Secretary Fairchild left for New York Sunday night to make a personal investigation into the charges preferred by Appraiser Sterns that the government had been swindled out of a million dollars through the false appraisement of Sumatra tobacco. He declined to be interviewed upon the subject.

Killed by a Falling Elevator.

TROY, N. Y., Jan. 15.—A Hoosick Falls special to the Standard states that William Carroll and a boy named Bostley were killed by the fall of an elevator at the Walter A.
Wood moving machine works this morning.
Ahern and Jansen, the other passengers on the elevator, were seriously injured. It is thought they will die.

Fought Thirteen Rounds.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Harry Thompson, of Kingsland, N. J., and Frank Evans, middle-weights, fought for $100 a side Sunday, near Rutherford, N. J. After thirteen rounds of most desperate fighting the match was decided a draw. Both men had to be helped from the ring, Evans being almost blind.

An Organ Company Quits.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—A Tribune special from Erie, Pa., says the Burlington Organ company has decided to quit business. This action is caused by the cheap organ trade and by the increasing popularity of the piano. The company quits with a surplus, however.

Double Tragedy at Toledo.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 15.—James Dutcher, a private watchman, Sunday morning shot his wife through the hand and neck inflicting probably fatal injuries, and then fired a ball through his brain. He was jealous.
